FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Nancy Kaupp Ewin

GRATITUDE – THE BEST ATTITUDE

Each month we meet as a board of directors, covering the usual agenda of committee and section reports as well as new business to be discussed. I am continually amazed at the positive and active board we have. It is not discussed often enough, but I want all the Foothills Bar Members to know you are well represented and the board is truly working to make your membership more valuable to you. In this season of thanksgiving, I say "Thank You" to each and every board member and "Thank You" to all members of the Foothills Bar Association for being members and supportive of the board.

In an effort to summarize what has been done this year, Keith Jones has worked very hard to institute professional video taping of our great MCLE programs this year. It has been quite a process but we have already successfully taped two outstanding seminars. He also has brought in some advertisers to help defray costs of running the Association in an effort to keep membership fees reasonable.

EAST COUNTY LAWYERING

Carolyn Brock (currently serving as Treasurer) organized and supervised our May Law Day event at the El Cajon Court Law Library. Many people were served through her outstanding efforts.

Leah Boucek (currently serving as Secretary) and Stan Bacinett (currently serving as Vice President) are working hard on the December Annual Election Meeting which will be at Hooley's Restaurant and the Annual Dinner which will be in January, 2011. Leah has also been invaluable in her role as Court Liaison this year. Stan has done a yeoman's job on the membership campaign, including the "mixer" with the San Diego County Bar after hours at Hooley's.

Jennifer Hughes has organized the "Hard to Get Credits" seminar for January, 2011. She did an outstanding job in January, 2010 and we look forward to the same this time.

Jennifer Hughes, Kim Staron (immediate Past President), and Heather Milligan have worked with our new website designer to create a website which enhances exposure for all members as well as providing valuable information about the Foothills Bar and allowing us to pay online for seminars and events.

Cheryl Stengel has worked with Editor Catherine Tancredi to produce an informative online newsletter. Sending out the newsletter electronically has saved the Association a significant amount of money this year.

Our section chairs - Mark Raftery, Cheryl Stengel, Carolyn Brock, Chuck Schmidt - continue to provide excellent lunch seminars each month for the Civil Law, Estate Planning, and Family Law Sections. Recently the Foothills Bar hosted the only Judge's Forum this election season. Both Jim Miller and Richard Monroy participated.

Of course we are always grateful for the support given to us by the judges in East County.

It's a team effort and I wanted to let you know what is being done and how much I appreciate the dedication and work of the board members. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

EAST COUNTY LAWYERING

CATCH THIS

The FBA Family Law Section's September 2010 brown bag lunch and learn seminar hosted Andrea Scripps, the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program staff attorney for the East County Domestic Violence Clinic. Ms. Scripps has been tending the clinic for two and a half years. It's easy to see that she enjoys her work and is very knowledgeable on the subject. It sounds like she has seen just about every fact situation that involves a possible restraining order.

Ms. Scripps had a great powerpoint presentation handout of every aspect of a restraining order. She points out that these orders restrain the majority of the restrained parties but that some parties ignore the document. Driving home that point, she states that during the time that she has been at the clinic there have been two people who have filed restraining orders in her clinic that were killed by the restrained party. There is always that realization that we must treat each threat as serious and could be carried out by a party.

Some points:

She mentioned that 12 year olds can file a restraining order and present their case, as long as they have a guardian ad litem.

The case of Nakamura v Parker 156 CalApp 4th 327 resulted in the requirement that the courts now must state their reasons for denying a request for a restraining order on form DV-109.

One cannot obtain a restraining order for someone else even if they have a power of attorney, such as an elderly person.

The FBA Family Law section greatly appreciates Ms. Scripps' enthusiasm and time devoted to our Family Law section.

The SDVLP are always looking for volunteers so please contact them at 619-235-5656.

The FBA Family Law Section's October 2010 brown bag lunch and learn seminar hosted Thea Glazer, a Certified Financial Planner and Certified Divorce Financial Analyst. Ms. Glazer has been practicing over 25 years in her profession, including in the collaborative law area. She has a master's degree in accounting. She provides financial advising, forensic analysis and business valuations in divorce cases. She has testified as an expert witness numerous occasions. She spoke to our members in May 2008 and was kind enough to share her knowledge, expertise and enthusiasm for the subject again.

It was quite evident that Ms. Glazer knew her subject well. In fact, she 'loves' what she does. Her handouts included detailed examples of a 401k Profit Sharing Plan, a Retirement Plan Analysis, and a Stock Option Community Property Analysis.

Ms. Glazer instructed that stock options have a maze of complications regarding vesting, being qualified, transferability, and tax consequences. Ms. Glazer can help you consider these issues and develop a post-divorce financial plan for your client.

Remember, the Family Law section seminars are free to FBA members, who pay only $55 for yearly dues. Plus, you get MCLE credits for the seminars. FBA members can attend the seminars presented by the sections at no extra charge. Look for the Family Law section seminars on the third Tuesday of each month. Next up on November 16, 2010 will be Cheryl Stengel, Esq. to discuss crossover issues of bankruptcy and divorce. We especially welcome your suggestions for future speakers.

Good practicing,

Chuck Schmidt

FBA MCLE VIDEO LIBRARY DEVELOPMENTS

By Keith A. Jones, Esq.

In September, the Foothills Bar Association announced its partnership with Attorney Credits, an approved MCLE provider, to videotape FBA's seminars. As part of that partnership, Attorney Credits furnishes a copy of the final video to the FBA in a DVD format.

The FBA is in the planning stages to develop its own library of the DVDs so that its members can borrow and view a presentation that he or she may have missed due to a schedule conflict. The FBA currently has DVDs for the "So You Settled Your Case, Now What?" seminar presented by Jon H. Epstein and Mark R. Raftery through the FBA's Civil Litigation Section in August 2010, and the "Medi-Cal Recovery - An Unavoidable Event?" presented by Richard Scott Stewart through the FBA's Estate Planning Section in September 2010. Both videos are currently available for purchase through Attorney Credits' website, www.attorneycredits.com.

The FBA will add to its library as videos are received, and will keep members apprised of the titles through the newsletter. The check out procedure, once established, will require a member to leave a deposit when picking up the video. The FBA intends to keep the lending period short so that other members can utilize this benefit, particularly during the "crunch" months.

Don't forget that FBA members receive a 20% discount on all purchases at Attorney Credits. It offers a wide variety of California-approved MCLE presentations in various formats through its website, www.attorneycredits.com. Be sure to take advantage of this valuable benefit.

Look for more announcements regarding the FBA's video library in the near future!
